About licenses and permits

The money collected from saltwater fishing licenses and permits is used to improve and restore fish habitat and for marine fisheries research, law enforcement and public education on marine resources. Recreational licenses and permits, including reprints, are available at GoOutdoorsFlorida.com, Fish|Hunt FL app, tax collectors' offices, license agents, or by calling toll-free 888-FISH-FLORIDA (347-4356). Handling fees apply to telephone and internet sales. See more information on page 22.

Thank you for contributing to conservation

Your purchases of fishing equipment, motorboat fuel and fishing licenses help improve fishing and boating opportunities in Florida through the Federal Aid in Sport Fish Restoration program (SFR). SFR is a successful cycle of federal funding that includes anglers, the fishing and boating industry, and conservation agencies with the goal to restore and better manage America's recreational fisheries. Funding is derived through an excise tax on fishing gear and motorboat fuel, paid by anglers through fishing and boating manufacturers.

Through this federal "user-pay, public-benefit" system of conservation, millions of dollars in funding each year go toward fisheries research, habitat management, stock enhancement, artificial reefs, boating access improvements, angler outreach and aquatic education. To learn more about how everyone benefits from enhanced fishing opportunities provided through the program, visit MyFWC.com/SFR.

Message from the FWC by Chairman Rodney Barreto

As we embark on a new year, I am honored to reflect on the previous year and the remarkable strides our agency has taken to continue our mission of conservation. Serving as Chairman of the Commission that is responsible for managing and protecting fish and wildlife, I am immensely proud of the unwavering dedication exhibited by our staff in their daily work, providing countless opportunities for residents and visitors to enjoy Florida's great outdoors. I am equally grateful for the tireless commitment of our law enforcement officers who safeguard our precious fish and wildlife resources and protect the public. I would be remiss if I did not also mention my fellow Commissioners who generously volunteer their time, energy, and resources to our incredibly important duty of collectively managing and conserving Florida's fish and wildlife.

However, these conservation achievements would not be possible without the continued support and partnership of Florida's angling community. Anglers are crucial partners in conservation, and I am always moved by the passion Florida anglers have for ensuring our fisheries and their habitats are thriving for future generations. Anglers are deeply connected to our fisheries, letting us know when and where concerns may be, and offering ideas for addressing these concerns. The new snook regional management approach, in particular, stands as a testament to the collaborative conservation efforts between anglers and the Commission. By anglers working together with researchers and fisheries managers to develop an innovative and adaptive management approach, we have established a trailblazing management model that is garnering recognition nationwide. Thank you to the thousands of anglers who have actively engaged in our public workshops, Commission meetings, and to the thousands more who have submitted their public comment online. Beyond this, your contributions to conservation through initiatives like Sport Fish Restoration have enabled the creation of artificial reefs, boat ramps, educational programs, and vital research through funds generated from purchases of tackle, fishing license, and motorboat fuel.

We are grateful for your unwavering dedication to the conservation of our fish and wildlife, as well as your partnership and collaboration in our conservation mission. It is because of your efforts and support that Florida is and will continue to be the Fishing Capital of the World. Thank you, Florida anglers!

Healthy Fisheries Depend on Healthy Coral Reefs

Coral reefs support an abundant fish community by providing food, shelter and breeding grounds. As adults, fish will often return to spawn at the reef. In return, fish promote reef health by cleaning algae off the corals and keeping pests in check.

Fish populations and Florida's Coral Reef are closely linked, and both are vital to the state's food supply and economy.

Hooked a Bird? Don't Cut the Line!

Even if you take precautionary steps to avoid it, sometimes you might hook a bird by accident. That's when it's important to remember—don't cut the line and let the bird fly away with it attached. This can lead to entanglement and death of birds (and an inconvenient loss of line). Instead, follow these simple steps to unhook the bird: Reel. Remove. Release.

1. Wear safety glasses and enlist a partner for help.
2. Reel the bird in slowly and lift it from the water using a hoop net.
3. Grasp the bird by the head just behind the eyes and fold the wings against the body. For pelicans, hold the beak, keeping the mouth slightly open so it can breathe. Cover the bird's head with a cloth to keep it calm.
4. Remove the barb and hook from the bird using pliers or clippers. If the bird is entangled, remove all line.
5. Release the bird (if healthy) by placing it on the ground near the water and allowing it to take off.
6. If the bird has swallowed the hook or is severely injured, contact a local seabird rehabilitator. For help finding one, use the link to the locator app at MyFWC.com/Unhook.

How else can you keep the seabirds away from your fish and reduce entanglement?

1. Don't feed the birds, which teaches them to approach where they are more likely to interfere with fishing.
2. Dispose of filleted bones where birds can't get them — in a trash can with lid or at home.
3. Cover bait buckets and take unused bait home.
4. Dispose of fishing line in a monofilament recycling bin or cut into small pieces and place in the trash.
5. Don't leave your line unattended.
6. Cast carefully to avoid being snared on trees, bridge piles, power lines or obstacles.
7. Help others learn what to do when they accidentally hook a bird. It's pretty easy, once you know how.

Florida manages one of the most diverse, and most active artificial reef programs in the United States. As of October 2023, the FWC Artificial Reef Program has recorded over 4,173 artificial reef deployment locations state-wide. In the past six months, over 220 new artificial reefs have been constructed and the locations from a subset of the most recent reefs are listed in the table below. Snook Regional Management

Recent Changes to Snook Management

- FWC has adopted a regional management approach for snook that brings a holistic view to management decisions using multiple metrics to evaluate the fishery on a smaller regional scale.

- There are seven metrics used in the evaluation: spawning potential ratio (SPR), habitat, harmful algal blooms (HABs), relative abundance, fishing effort, temperature, and stakeholder feedback.
- The new regulations establish nine snook management regions throughout Florida. These management regions extend inland, as shown on the map, and into adjacent federal waters.
- FWC staff will annually evaluate the snook fishery in each region using the metrics, and key findings will be summarized in "Annual Review" publications.
- To see the latest snook annual reviews for each management region, visit MyFWC.com/Snook.

Can't find your fish in the regulations?

Florida's coastal waters are home to thousands of marine species, and the majority of these species have no specific regulations with regard to bag limits, size limits, gear restrictions or closed seasons. These species are often referred to as "unregulated species," although the name can be a bit misleading. State law provides that for any marine species that does not have specific regulations, harvesting more than 100 pounds or two fish (whichever is the greater amount) constitutes a commercial quantity and requires a commercial license. This means the recreational harvest limit for any unregulated species is 100 pounds or two organisms if the combined weight of the two organisms exceeds 100 pounds.

Gulf Kingfish

Jack Crevalle

Lionfish

Examples of "unregulated species" include:
Ladyfish, bonito, menhaden, white grunt, southern stingray, gulf kingfish (whiting), pinfish, Atlantic croaker, jack crevalle, cero mackerel, hardhead catfish, gaftopsail catfish, lionfish.

* No license is required to harvest lionfish by dipnet, pole spear or Hawaiian sling and lionfish bag limit is unlimited for both Gulf and Atlantic state waters.

- ★ Spearing Prohibited
- ▲ Must remain in whole condition (removal of gills and guts allowed).
- ◆ Measured as total length. Total length is the straight line distance from the most forward part of the head with the mouth closed to the farthest tip of the tail with the tail compressed or squeezed together while the fish is lying on its side.
- State regulations apply in federal waters.
- Additional gear rules apply, please see: MyFWC.com
- ✦ Harvest prohibited by or with the use of any multiple hook (any hook with two or more points and a common shaft) in conjunction with live or dead natural bait.
- ✗ State Reef Fish Angler designation required when fishing for select reef fish species from a private vessel in the Gulf of Mexico or Atlantic Ocean.

Keep Silver Kings Reigning

Use Best Fishing Practices

Photos courtesy of Capt. Bryon Chamberlin

Gear

- Use non-stainless, non-offset, barbless circle hooks
- Use single hook rigs
- Use tackle heavy enough to land tarpon quickly and minimize fight time by matching tackle to conditions and targeted fish size
- Use a dehooking tool to quickly and easily remove hooks

Handling

- Tarpon over 40 inches MUST remain in the water by law, unless in pursuit of a state or world record using a tarpon tag
- Tarpon smaller than 40 inches should only be handled with wet hands and be supported horizontally if removed from the water
- Work quickly to minimize handling time and exposure to air
- Keep fingers away from the gills and eyes
- Avoid dragging tarpon over the gunnel of a boat, or over rocks or railings

Release

- Release fish as quickly as possible
- Revive lethargic tarpon ensuring water passes over the gills from front to back or hold it horizontally in the water to allow it to pump water through its gills
- If a shark appears while you are fighting a tarpon, consider breaking the tarpon off as close to the hook as possible so it has a chance to escape before it is too tired

Jeff Stephens

Chloe Bedford

Robert Modys

Additional Best Fishing Practices for Tarpon

- Take efforts to shorten future fight times if tarpon appear lethargic during release
- Move to another fishing location if sharks are in the area
- Avoid fishing for tarpon from bridges or piers as this requires specialized lifting gear or cutting the line with long amounts of line trailing behind the fish, leading to entanglement of other marine life including birds

Visit MyFWC.com/Tarpon to learn more about fishing for tarpon in Florida.

Conquering the Seas

Eighth Annual Lionfish Challenge Shatters Records

The 2023 Lionfish Challenge was a showstopper that shattered all expectations, raising the Reef Rangers bar to new heights in numbers of participants and lionfish harvested! From June 1 through Oct. 1, a fleet of 281 fearless and ambitious divers removed 30,494 invasive lionfish from Florida waters, protecting our precious marine resources. This year's top competitors really brought the heat! The 2023 Lionfish King, Baye Beauford of Jacksonville, reigned supreme in the Recreational Category with the 1,514 lionfish he harvested, and the 2023 Commercial Champion, Jerry Butler of Jacksonville, removed a staggering 1,208 pounds of lionfish, equivalent to approximately 1,331 fish, securing his spot at the top of the Commercial Category. This year also marked the inaugural inclusion of a Military Prize to be presented to the top Active Military or Veteran competitor. Eric Larson of Gulf Breeze took home the prize with an impressive harvest of 591 lionfish. A salute to our military heroes who protect and serve both on land and in the water!

We would like to extend a special thanks to the 55 shops that served as checkpoints for recreational submissions and our primary sponsor, ZooKeeper, for supporting the Lionfish Challenge and designing and providing tournament shirts. Without their invaluable support, the Lionfish Challenge truly wouldn't be possible.

Recreational gear

Reef fish gear rules

(applies to species marked with ● on pages 10-11)

- Gulf of Mexico: These regulations require a dehooking device and a venting tool or descending device rigged and ready for use when recreationally fishing for reef fish in the Gulf of Mexico. All persons aboard a vessel harvesting reef fish must possess and use non-stainless steel non-offset circle hooks when using natural baits.
- Atlantic Ocean: These regulations require a dehooking device and a venting tool or descending device rigged and ready for use when recreationally fishing for reef fish in the Atlantic. (New) When fishing for reef fish using hook-and-line with natural baits from a vessel, non-stainless steel, non-offset circle hooks are required N. of 28 degrees N. latitude and non-stainless steel hooks are required S. of 28 degrees N. latitude

These rules apply to all members of the reef fish complex including groupers, snappers, amberjacks, red porgy, gray triggerfish, black sea bass, golden tilefish, banded rudderfish, speckled hind and others. For a complete species list, please visit MyFWC.com.

Hook-and-line gear

Hook-and-line anglers must tend their gear at all times to prevent people, marine life and shore life from becoming entangled in the line or injured by the hook. Also, it is against the law to intentionally discard any monofilament netting or line into or onto state waters. Monofilament line can entangle birds, marine mammals, marine turtles and fish, often injuring or killing them. Trot lines with 10 or fewer hooks are considered hook-and-line gear and must be tended at all times while deployed. Species identified with "T" on pages 10 through 13 cannot be harvested with multi-hooks (single hook with two or more points) in conjunction with natural baits.

Nets

The following types of nets may be used for recreational purposes in Florida waters:

- Bully nets (for lobster only) no greater than 3 feet in diameter and not made of monofilament.
- Frame nets and push nets (for shrimp only) no greater than 16 feet in perimeter and not made of monofilament. Frame nets cannot be used in state waters off Dade County.
- Hand-held landing or dip nets no greater than 96 inches in perimeter.
- Cast nets measuring 14 feet or less stretched length (stretched length is defined as the distance from the horn at the center of the net with the net gathered and pulled taut, to the lead line).
- Beach or haul seines measuring no larger than 500 square feet of mesh area, no larger than 2 inches stretched mesh size, not constructed of monofilament, and legibly marked at both ends with the harvester's name and address if a Florida resident. Non-residents using beach or haul seines for recreational purposes are required to have a commercial saltwater products license and legibly mark the seine at both ends with the harvester's saltwater products license number.
- Cast nets and seines may be used as harvesting gear for the following species only: black drum, bluefish, cobia, flounder, mullet, Florida pompano, red drum, sheepshead, shrimp, Spanish mackerel, weakfish and unregulated species (see p. 12).
- No more than two nets can be fished from any vessel and no more than one net can be fished by any person not on a vessel.

Explosives, etc.

The use of powerheads, explosives, chemicals or the discharge of firearms to kill or harvest marine life is prohibited in state waters.

Spearing

Spearing is a general term that includes bow fishing, gigging, spearfishing (underwater), or the use of any other device to capture a fish by piercing its body. Spearing does not include snagging or snatch hooking by hook and line. Marine species harvested by spearing are subject to the same recreational regulations (e.g., bag limits, size limits, and closed seasons) as those marine species that are harvested by any other type of recreationally-allowed gear. The following is a list of species or groups of species that are prohibited from harvest by all forms of spearing in state waters:

- All prohibited species (listed on p. 10-13)
- Billfish (all species)
- Bonefish
- Crab (blue, stone)
- Caribbean spiny lobster (Panulirus argus)
- Goliath grouper
- Manta ray
- Nassau grouper
- Permit
- Pompano (Florida and African)
- Red drum
- Sharks (all species including dogfish)
- Snook
- Spotted eagle ray

* Volusia County — You may not harvest by spearing in Volusia County inland waters with the exception of flounder and sheepshead, and only by the use of a barbed spear with three or fewer prongs.

* Special Local Laws also prohibit harvest by spearing in specific areas (Visit MyFWC.com/Fishing and select "Saltwater," "Recreational Regulations," "Full Text Rule by Species" and "Local Laws.")

Spearfishing

Spearfishing is a specific form of "spearing" defined as "the catching or taking of a fish through the instrumentality of a hand or mechanically propelled, single or multi-pronged spear or lance, barbed or barbless, operated by a person swimming at or below the surface of the water." In addition to the harvest species limitations above, you may not spearfish:

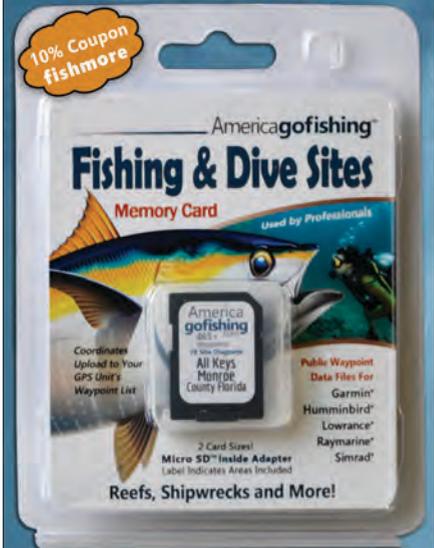

- For any species that cannot be harvested by spearing (see Spearing on pg. 18).
- For any species (freshwater or marine) in freshwater. Possession of spearfishing equipment in or on freshwater is also prohibited.
- Within the upper Keys no-spearfishing zone, which includes all state waters from the Miami-Dade County line down to and including Long Key.
- Within 100 yards of any designated public bathing beaches, commercial or public fishing piers, or portions of bridges where fishing is allowed.

- Within 100 feet of the unsubmerged portion of any jetty, except that spearing is allowed along the last 500 yards of any jetty that extends more than 1,500 yards from the shoreline.
- In or on any body of water under the jurisdiction of the Division of Recreation and Parks of the Department of Environmental Protection. Within these areas, the possession of spearfishing equipment is also prohibited except when such equipment is unloaded and is properly stored upon watercraft passing nonstop through the area.
- Within the no-take areas of the Florida Keys National Marine Sanctuary (Visit: www.floridakeys.noaa.gov)
- Within any area where spearfishing is prohibited by a Special Local Law (Visit MyFWC.com/Fishing and select "Saltwater," "Recreational Regulations," "Full Text Rule by Species" and "Local Laws.")

Powerheads, Bangsticks, Rebreathers

Harvest with the use of powerheads, bangsticks or rebreathers is prohibited in state waters, except that rebreathers are allowed for the harvest of lionfish. Within state waters, powerheads and bangsticks can be used for personal protection only, and cannot be used to harvest any species.

throughout the state, dial *FWC (*392) depending on your location, hail on VHF Channel 16 or report violations via text message. Most cell phones allow users to send text messages directly to an email address. You can text Tip@MyFWC.com; standard usage fees may apply.
