GET KIDS Hooked!

With over 500,000 acres of lakes and 16,000 miles of streams in Georgia, there are plenty of opportunities to get kids hooked on fishing.

FISHING WITH KIDS: GeorgiaWildlife.com/kidsfishing

Find out more about introducing your child to fishing, such as:

- Kids Fishing Event locations and dates
- Places to take kids fishing
- Tips for fishing with kids
- Downloading a "My First Fish" Certificate

YOUTH FISHING CAMPS & PROGRAMS

Find out more about youth angler camps and programs:

- Fishing Workshops & Summer Fishing Day Camps at Go Fish Education Center (GoFishEducationCenter.com/education-gfec).
- Fish-n-Learn Education Programs for youth ages 7–15. (GeorgiaWildlife.com/FishAndLearn)
- The Charlie Elliott Center offers multiple day and overnight camps for youth, including the Gone Fishin' Overnight Camp for youth ages 11–13. (GeorgiaWildlife.com/camps).

EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS: GeorgiaWildlife.com/educational-resources

Plan a school trip to one of the regional wildlife education centers in Georgia. Each center offers hands-on, nature based programming around fishing and wildlife conservation.
The Go Fish Education Center in Perry, GA offers interactive, hands-on lessons, live fish and wildlife exhibits, fishing simulators and so much more!

GIVE THE GIFT OF FISHING!

Got a young angler in the house? Gift them a lifetime license as a child and save hundreds. It's never too early!
Visit https://georgiawildlife.com/lifetime license